IN MEMORIAM TO THE WEST GEORGIA BOYS WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY

DEDICATION

To MISS KATIE DOWNS, our new registrar, for her helpfulness and hospitality to new students, for her friendliness and cooperation with old students, and for her interest in our varied activities, we appreciatively dedicate the 1947 CHIEFTAIN.

To our advisor, Mr. George C. S. Adams, whose untiring work in his many and varied positions in student organizations has proved his real interest in the student body, and without whose help this issue would have been quite impossible, we wish to express our deepest appreciation and sincerest thanks for his splendid counsel and cooperation.

FOREWORD

It has been our intention in compiling this yearbook to include between its covers scenic memories of collegiate life, typically West Georgian. It is our genuine wish that in future years it may vividly recall these happy memories of West Georgia.

The Editors proudly present the 1947 Chieftain.

For the first year since the founding of West Georgia College a football team was sent to the gridiron. Although they were unable to secure a victory, they fought hard and made a creditable showing. The school is just as proud as it can be of the Braves. We feel that football is essential in making a well rounded college life. It is not with regret that we look back to defeats, but with grim determination to win in the future.
